CENTENNIAL PROFITS SLATED FOR FIRE EQUIPMENT

Watch for word on the arrival of "Wooden Nickels" to Lansing. They'll be coming soon — and they'll actually be worth five cents and can be spent just like a real nickel.

The Centennial Ball will be a must for all who like to dance. Two bands will supply continuous music, and "Miss Lansing" and her royal court will lead the grand march.

All bearded men should join the great brotherhood called the "Brothers of the Brush." It's a national fraternity for bearded men, and is formed wherever a community celebrates a Centennial. Membership only costs $1.00. There'll be a Beard Contest, too, for all registered brothers. You ateds should register at Centennial Headquarters.

Likewise, all women who plan to wear old-fashioned clothes during the Centennial or before, should join the "Sisters of the Swish." Membership is just $1.00. If you want to wear makeup, you had better get a cosmetic permit, $1.00.

Let's all start wearing our official Centennial Hat. You have your choice, a topper, a derby, a bonnet or an Alpine. All of them can be obtained at Centennial Headquarters or at downtown Lansing stores.

Kids, remember, there's going to be a hat judging contest for you. Prizes for the craziest and loudest decorated Alpine or Derby Girls get in this, too. You can win some money.

A complete as possible history of Lansing is being compiled for this edition, including histories of Lansing churches, schools, clubs, civic organizations, old time families, village government, business and industry, agriculture and humorous old time incidents.

In attendance were some 250 Kiwanians and their wives or guests from many of the surrounding towns.

After a fine dinner the charter of the new Kiwanis Club was presented to its president, John Dykstra. Kiwanis flags were presented to Donald Slager, vice president of the new club.

The new organization was sponsored by the Homewood-Flossmoor Kiwanis Club and the Rossland Kiwanis Club. The presidents of these clubs were awarded ribbons.

Advertise For Bids On Overhead Tank

Plans for a new elevated water storage tank for the village are rapidly taking shape. The plans have already been approved by the Illinois Department of Public Health and the board has advertised for bids.

At the last village board meeting held Tuesday, July 6 the clerk was authorized to advertise for bids on elevated water storage tanks of 300,000, 400,000 and 500,000 gallon capacity.

Bids for the construction of the tank will be opened at the next meeting of the board to be held Tuesday August 3rd.

According to Evert Schultz, village president, the overhead storage tank will be paid for on a cash basis using the existent surplus in the water revenue fund and the anticipated surplus for the coming year.

The tank will be located just south and east of the present water tower on Chicago avenue.

Zoning Questions Arise

Other business at the Village Board meeting included three appeals for rezoning.

Nagle Packing Company asked the Village to rezone a parcel of land bounded by Bernice Road, Tri-State highway, Chicago avenue and Lorenz avenue from residential and business to industrial.

Residents of the surrounding area were unable to oppose the rezoning. However their voice was not necessary because the Zoning Board of Appeals recommended to the Village board that the petition for rezoning be denied and the board accepted the recommendation.

A tract of land just north of the Tri-State highway and on the east side of Wentworth was asked to be rezoned to permit the establishment of a gulf range. The Zoning Board of appeals recommended that the petition be denied and that if wished a temporary permit be granted. The Village Board delayed action on the matter until their next meeting.

Edward Vanderbilt applied for the rezoning of property at 17021-27 Torrence avenue from class A residential to class C business. The Zoning Board of Appeals recommended that the petition be denied and the Board upheld the decision.

Pass Annual Appropriation Ord.

The board heard the reading of the appropriation bill which was published according to law and ok'd also an amendment to the Appropriation Ordinance to include $150,000 for an overhead water storage tank.

Renew Liquor Licenses

All present liquor licenses in the Village of Lansing were renewed for another year by the Village Board.

An amendment to the Street Improvement Ordinance was passed by the Village Board allowing persons wishing to build on single scattered lots where there has been no street improvements to put in a street consisting of a one-inch cushion and a seven-inch stone base with no topping.

Accept Bids

Bids which were opened and read and then placed on file at a previous meeting were accepted by the Village Board. They included a bid on an accounting machine amounting to $5,725 for the clerk's office from the National Cash Register Company; $1120 bid from J. A. Klikert and Son for cleaning the Village Hall and redecorating work; $3,019.00 bid for the black topping of parking meter area locations awarded S. G. Hays Company.

Open Bids on New Truck

Bids were opened on a 1½ ton truck chassis. Only one bid was submitted, that by Flikkema Motor Sales of Lansing for $2,550. The bid was placed on file.

Jerome A. Carroll in a letter to the Village Board resigned as one of its members. Mr. Carroll and his family have moved to West Virginia due to promotion in his employment.

The vacancy will be filled by appointment until the next village election. No successor has been named as yet.

100 Girls Compete For Centennial Queen

Over 100 young Lansing girls are competing in the contest to elect a queen to rule over the Lansing Centennial Celebration. Armed with advance pageant tickets which mean votes for them, they are all determined to claim the title of "Miss Lansing."

The winner will receive a week in Bermuda for herself and a companion of her choice with all expenses paid. She will also receive a complete wardrobe. The next ten girls will comprise the Queen's Court and will receive handsome prizes in accordance with their relative positions in the lineup. The runner-up to the Queen will receive an expense paid Labor Day week-end at the Northern Aire Resort in Wisconsin.

The contest is strictly a "Popularity Contest" and is definitely not to be construed as a so-called "Bathing Beauty" contest. Intelligence, popularity and an active ambitious and energetic personality will undoubtedly supersede beauty alone in attaining the final, top-ranking positions.

The girls obtain their votes through the sale of advance tickets to the mammoth historical spectacle, "Lans - Cent - Orama," which will be presented nightly during the Centennial week. The advance coupons sell for $1.00 but will have the value of $1.50 when exchanged for actual admission tickets. Thus a purchaser saves one third.

For every three tickets sold, the contestant receives 1000 votes and for each completely sold book she turns in, she automatically receives 5000 additional votes. At different times during the contest BONUS votes will be given. Also, the Lansing Journal carries a VOTE COUPON good for ten votes when filled in with a candidate's name and forwarded to Centennial Headquarters.

The advance tickets are not admission tickets of themselves, and must be exchanged in every instance for actual tickets. This may be done at Centennial Headquarters, 3338 Ridge Road, after Monday, August 9th. An advance coupon may be exchanged for one adult general admission or two children's general admission tickets, at no extra cost, unless a Government tax is required.

The contest closes at 6 p.m. on August 4th, and after that no more advance coupons will be sold. So purchase an advance ticket now, save 50c and help a young lady become "Miss Lansing."

Babson Report For Last Six Month Period

Do not forget Europe and the Middle East. France is torn by internal dissention and a blow-off could come there any time. West Germany is growing more impatient with French bickering over the Saar and over the formation of a Western European army including German participation. Russia will strive mightily to widen the split between France and Western Germany by holding out the "bait" of reunion between East and West Germany.

Friction between the Jews and the Arabs in the Middle East is being encouraged by Communist agents. The smouldering fires

Committee Decides On Civic Project

All profits of the forth-coming Lansing Centennial Celebration will be given to the Lansing Volunteer Fire Department to assist them in their program to purchase fire equipment.

The decision was made by the Centennial Steering Committee and Division Heads after careful consideration of all civic projects which might be aided.

The group thought that by giving the money to the Volunteer Firemen for the purchase of equipment that everyone in the entire village would be benefitted for the next 20 years.

The decision was reached on June 29th at a Centennial Committee meeting when a motion was made by Mr. Al Monaldi and seconded by Jack McNary that the Steering Committee go on record to suggest that any profits from the Centennial Celebration be given to the Lansing Volunteer Fire Department for the purchase of fire fighting equipment if this conforms with the regulations as set up by the Centennial Attorney, Jack Walker. The motion was carried.

Present at this meeting were William E. Erfert, chairman, Evert Schultz, William Last, Edward Van Laningham, Reinhold Widdel, James Dirst, Erwin Vierk, Ovid Greider, Jack McNary, George Oderwald, Al Monaldi, Helen Kosel and Lydia Lipske.

Kamstra - Rietveld Nuptials

Ridge Studio

Gladioli bouquets, palms and candelabra graced the altar of the Munster Christian Reformed Church, June 23 when the first wedding in the new church was performed by Reverend John Bult at an 8:00 p.m. ceremony.

Miss Dorothy Jane Kamstra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kamstra became the bride of Fred Herman Rietveld, son of Mrs. Jennie Rietveld of South Holland, Illinois.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For the ceremony she was wearing a white silk organza over net and taffeta dress. It was styled with an illusion yoke and the fitted bodice had a band of organdy rosettes which formed the low neckline and cap sleeves and accented the skirt which formed a cathedral train. The gown had tiny covered buttons down the back. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown made with miniature organdy rosettes centered with seed pearls.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids' gowns were all styled similar, having a strapless bodice of white net and tulle over taffeta and colored crystalette jackets with pleated crystalette band on bodice and forming streamers down the back.

The flower girl, Barbara Lou Kooy wore a gown fashioned after the bridesmaids which was light green in color. She carried a basket of rose petals. Jerry Olthoff was the ring bearer.

Ushering at the wedding were Tony Heekstra and Willard Olthoff. Peter Rietveld was best man and Henry Triezenberg, Vernon Lish, Harold Olthoff and Bernard Olthoff were groomsmen.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Lester Santefort at the organ and Harvey Anker soloist. He sang "O Perfect Love," "God Sent You to Me" and the "Lord's Prayer."

Two hundred guests attended the reception which was held in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony. Out of town guests at the wedding reception were from South Bend, Indiana and Holland, Michigan.

The new Mrs. Rietveld is a secretary to Walter W. Schultz and is a graduate of Illiana Christian High school. The groom graduated from Thornton Township High school in Harvey and he now operates a farm.

Philip Schuringa Married In Oak Park Church

Philip Schuringa, 18304 School street, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. John Schuringa was united in marriage last Saturday, June 12, to Miss Wilma Wesseling of Chicago.

The wedding took place at the Oak Park Christian Reformed church. For the ceremony the altar was graced with white gladioli and greens. Harold Botma accompanied at the organ and Emily Ericks rendered the vocal selections.

Her sister Betty was her only attendant. She wore a blue nylon tulle dress. Her head-dress was of pink carnations and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations also.

When the bride left for her honeymoon she was wearing an aqua silk suit with white accessories. They will spend their honeymoon in Michigan. When they return from their trip they will make their home at 18304 School street.

The new Mrs. Schuringa attended school in the Netherlands where her parents still make their home. She attended Calvin College in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and is a teacher at the Cicero Christian School.

Philip attended Hammond High school and Chicago Christian High school. He is now self-employed as a carpenter.

Lansing Seniors Shut Out Twice; Play Tonight

The Lansing Old Timers South Suburban baseball team dropped two games via the shutout route during the past week. On July 9th they traveled to Russell Square Park where Joe's A. C. edged them 1-0. Lansing pitcher Whitaker was bested by Piet in a real pitcher's duel.

Each team knew that they were in a real thriller before the game was over. Lansing outhit their opponents four to three, but Joe's A.C. got two of their three hits in the fifth to do the real damage.

Shutout By Riverdale

On July 11th, the team was shut-out 7-0 at Riverdale. Lansing pitcher Tony Hannigan was touched for seven runs and six hits in the two and two-thirds innings that he pitched. He was relieved by Jim Vierk, who did a fine job on the mound. Vierk pitched shut-out ball and scattered four singles in the five and one-third innings that he hurled.

Riverdale made it 2-0 in the very first inning on a walk, sacrifice, hit, and an error.

In Riverdale's big third, there were six hits that scored five runs to make the score 7-0. The big blow was first baseman Neath's triple with the bases full. Riverdale's pitcher Phillips pitched a fine game and held Lansing to but four hits.

OUR WEEKLY SERMON

This is the first in a series of short sermonettes written by pastors of churches in the Lansing area. This week's sermon was written by William L. Manny, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Lansing.

Jesus said to his contemporaries, "Every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old." (Matthew 13:52, R. S. V.)

The scribes were the religious scholars of Jesus' day, and most of them were opposed to what Jesus said and did. This was because they were too much bound to the past. They brought from their treasure things that were old. They remembered and used the well that Jacob had dug, and they could quote every commandment that Moses had given, but they had no place for a new revelation from God, or for a new experience of His grace. They could not accept Jesus because he taught a "new covenant."

In our day the emphasis has swung to the other extreme. We are much interested in new houses, new cars, new gadgets, and the discovery of new and more powerful forces. We are interested in new ideas of right and wrong in sex and in other relationships. The centennial of our village, which we are preparing to celebrate should help us appreciate the past, and bring some old treasures to light.

We should be impressed with the courage of the early settlers, who did not hold physical security as their highest goal, and with the devotion to God and to faith which brought circuit riders along with the pioneers. Services of worship were held in the out-of-doors or in cabin homes before there were even school houses.

We need to keep the balance between old and new treasures. It is well to build our houses and provide for health and sanitation on the newest principles of science, but it is well to shape our character and build our souls on the moral and spiritual foundations of the past, leaving room for present experiences of God's saving grace.

GOP WOMEN MEET AT SOUTH HOLLAND

Members were addressed by the first of many interesting speakers that are scheduled for the coming year. Mr. Thomas Chuhak who spoke on the re-apportionment and its benefits to us in the suburbs. He answered many of the questions beneficial to the full understanding of the issue.

Antique Exhibit Planned As Part Of Flower Show

One of the outstanding features of the Lansing Woman's club Flower and Art Show will be the Antique Exhibit, which will be entirely under the direction of the Lansing Junior Woman's Club with Mrs. Donald E. Bruce, 3717 176th place, as chairman. Her committee will include Mrs. Thomas Willette, Mrs. Erwin Pranzen, Mrs. William Freeman, Mrs. Glenn Martin and Mrs. Casimir J. Klimowski.

Exhibitors are asked to submit a brief history with each article and entries in this section, as in the entire show will be accepted from residents of Lansing and the surrounding communities.

Each entry will be registered and the committee will exercise care in handling. It is suggested that articles be of reasonable size and easily portable. Among the display will be an antique organ, marble topped table and spinning wheel. Further information may be received from Mrs. Bruce, phone Lansing 1032-J.

The Photography Exhibit will be directed by Mrs. Jess Penwell. Entries in this section must be 8x10 inches, or larger and mounted, and all local photographers are invited to exhibit. Subjects may be of the exhibitor's choosing. Mrs. Eugene Pierce will assist Mrs. Penwell.

All entries will be received from 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., on July 29, the opening day of the flower show.

TAX FACTS

Problem: How to finance additional classroom facilities costing over $800,000 when the school district has only $450,000 in unused bonding power?

Answer: Use the $450,000 in bonding power to build a new field house and auditorium.

While that sounds silly enough to be ridiculous, the Taxpayers' Association of New Mexico vouches for the story.

The school district in New Mexico has a federal government installation (Los Alamos) in its area. Children of families at this federal installation attend the public school, resulting in overcrowding.

The school district therefore applied for $816,000 in federal aid to provide additional classrooms. But the school district was advised that the federal government doesn't provide federal aid of this kind, UNLESS THE SCHOOL DISTRICT HAS REACHED ITS BONDED DEBT LIMIT. The school district still had $450,000 in unused bonding power.

So the school district proposed a $450,000 bond issue to build a new field house and auditorium, to clear the way for "free money" from Washington to provide classrooms.

The proposed bond issue was approved by the voters. The school district is going ahead with the construction of the new auditorium and field house. Bonding power is now exhausted. The final chapter in this story of Alice in Blunderland is still to be written, however, since the federal government has not yet acted on the request for $816,000 in federal aid to provide classrooms.

WILLIAM E. McVEY
Your Congressman REPORTS

THE CONGRESS

One hears varied opinions with ard to the accomplishments of present Congress, depending gely upon the point of view or political philosophy of the one offers comments on this sub- t. Senator Knowland, Majority ader and Republican, of Cali- nia, stated recently that any r appraisal by the voters will dit the Republican-controlled ngress with more accomplish- nts than any which operated der recent Democrat Presidents.

Senator Sparkman, Democrat, of Alabama, rejoined, in a separate interview, that while some important measures have been approved or seemed likely to be, he thinks the Republicans have come up with nothing new. Here we have the opinions of leaders in the two great parties. If this issue is approached by impartial observers, it seems reasonable to assume that the present Congress has achieved a success which at least compares favorably with its predecessors.

Legislation Already Enacted

In previous newspaper releases, I have discussed the revision of the Internal Revenue code which was a monumental task, and when the bill came to the Floor, it included more than 800 pages. The bill to amend the Social Security Act and to extend coverage under the Old Age and Survivors' Insurance program is another measure which consumed considerable attention of the Congress. Much time was spent on farm legislation, which developed into a compromise measure providing for a flexible support program between 82½% and 90% of parity. A conflict arose between the supporters of the Administration program to provide a flexible price support between 75 and 90% of parity and those who endorsed the rigid price support theory advocating the 90% parity for farmers.

The Housing Bill passed both the House and the Senate with many differences in opinions. It is now in Conference and has been for the last ten days. At this moment, about 50 of the 159 differences have been resolved, but the subject of public housing—one of the most important of the disagreements—has not been touched by the Conference Committee as yet.

The House, within the last few days, completed action on the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, which is intended to promote and assist in the extension and improvement of vocational rehabilitation services. The plan provides for rehabilitating approximately 60,000 individuals each year, and the return of such persons to an important place in society. Another bill which cleared the House recently revised and extended the laws relating to espionage and sabotage. The penalties provided for subversive activities in certain instances are much more severe than heretofore. They involve the death penalty when the security of our country is at stake, especially in time of war.

Legislation Under Consideration

Other legislation before one or both Houses includes Statehood for Alaska and Hawaii. Statehood for the latter passed the House of Representatives, but in the Senate, Statehood for Alaska was appended to this measure. It is doubtful if either will be accorded this distinction during the present session of the Congress.

The Postal Pay Raise Bill is another piece of legislation which has been held back because the Rules Committee has refused to report out to the Floor the Corbett measure, which provides for an increase of 7% for postal employees. A compromise measure, which it is understood has the full and open support of Speaker Joseph W. Martin, of Massachusetts, and Honorable Charles A. Halleck, of Indiana, the Republican Leader of the House, is expected to reach the Floor within the course of a few days, and perhaps before this article appears in the newspapers. The compromise measure provides for a 5% permanent increase across the board for postal workers.

Backers of the compromise bill contend that half of the postal employees will get an automatic increase when the proposed job reslotting is completed next spring. It is understood that this plan also has the endorsement of President Eisenhower. Coupled with this increase in pay for postal workers is a proposed increase in first, second, and third-class postage, which, it is estimated, will amount to $233,280,000 in revenue. This sum is a little more than one-half of the Departmental deficit now running at about $437,200,000 a year.

The House is endeavoring to wind up the business of this session on July 31, or during the first few days of August, but there are many important measures yet to be considered. All of the appropriation bills are behind us. This type of legislation is time-consuming.

Indications are that the remaining days of the Congress will be strenuous ones beginning at ten or eleven o'clock in the morning and extending into the evening hours.

Babson—

STOCK MARKET OUTLOOK

(13) Of course, some day the market (especially the Dow-Jones Industrials) will get a bad wallop with very much lower prices. On the other hand, this may not come during the next few months. Up to this time the high yields of stocks have not appealed so much to investors, owing to the personal tax on both dividends and on income in general. Although stock yields compared with those of twenty years ago are higher if personal taxes are not considered, yet when these personal taxes are deducted, today's yields have not been attractive.

(14) The new Tax Bill and the increased buying for pension funds and investment trusts have, however, increased the demand for common stocks and could hold the market up for some months to come. I forecast that it will be very important to make careful selections of stocks. Don't buy stocks just because they have gone off heavily in price and appear cheap.

(15) Unfortunately, many small concerns will find it more and more difficult to compete with their big competitors. Not only can these big coroporations make goods cheaper and have better means of distribution, but they can spend huge sums on advertising, which a smaller concern cannot do. This will be especially evident during the next six months. The companies which will prosper most are those which have inaugurated effective labor-saving programs. Manufacfacturers will win only as they purchase new labor-saving machinery, spend more money on research and on well-directed advertising.

(16) Automobiles will continue to be hard to sell and easier to buy during the last half of 1954. Both the automobile stocks and the cars will be in less demand. There wil be more bargains in used cars, discounts on new cars, especially cars of the "independent" manufacturers.

(17) Canada will continue to boom during the second half of 1954, but this may be a good time to take profits on Canadian investments.

MONEY, INFLATION, AND INTEREST RATES

(18) When Mr. Eisenhower assumed the Presidency with his Cabinet of "9 millionaires," they proclaimed a new monetary policy which would increase the value of the dollar and raise interest rates. Either fortunately or unfortunately, the economic this policy. The value of the dollar shows no increase over January 1st and this has beep hailed by Wall Street as a sign of further inflation. Wall Street has boomed certain common stocks accordingly. Interest rates during the second six months of 1954 should average about as at present.

(19) The fear of involvement in Indo-China is strengthening the commodity markets. This takes some of the pressure off of Secretary Benson and those who have been resisting increased tariffs. I forecast an upward movement in many commodity prices—other than farm prices—during the balance of 1954.

(20) Money supplies are on the rise again now. They will continue to expand during the last half. Inflationary effects on the price level will be limited as our capacity to produce is now large. Remember, the surest way to squelch an inflationary fire is with a flood of goods. Inflationary effects of the expanded money supply could also be nullified by the change in the Government's method of collecting the corporate income tax. The new tax law may put the large corporations on a pay-as-you-go basis, squeezing their cash holdings.

Babson Park, Mass., June 24. While most of the columnists and business counselors last December forecast a depression for 1954, I constantly insisted that 1954 would be a "fair business year." This you will find in my Forecast which then appeared in this paper.

GENERAL BUSINESS

(1) Despite my general optimism with regard to prospects for business during the last half-year, there will be many crosscurrents. The improvement over the first six months will be no one-way street. Some industries will lag, or fall behind. Others are slated for betterment. Building has held up well, and was the backbone of business in the first half of 1954. The momentum generated should carry through the balance of the year.

(2) Also deserving of attention as in line for continued high activity, or for improvement, are the following industries: Electric power output, aircraft production, rubber manufacturing, household equipment, electrical equipment, petroleum, natural gas, shoes, and textiles. Even the sick coal industry will enjoy some pickup from the very depressed levels experienced during the first six months of 1954.

(3) Due to slip further down, or slated to show the least improvement, are the following industries: Machinery, machine tools, railroad equipment, metal fabricating, steel and iron, and autos and auto parts. In particular, auto output wil not match the first half, with competition keener in the last half than at any time since the 1930's.

SALES AND INVENTORIES

(4) As in the case of general business discussed above, sales prospects wil rule selective. With purchasing power holding well, demand for food products and soft goods will remain at a brisk pace. The public, however, have learned something about watching their pennies. They have become more price-conscious. For this reason, I predict that the mass distributors, such as the grocery and variety chains, will run ahead of the others saleswise, during the last half-year.

(5) Retail sales in general, although about 4% lower dollarwise, have held up during the first half in terms of physical volume as discounts and other concessions reduced the actual receipts. This is encouraging since it shows that consumers are still willing to spend if the price is reasonable. In terms of units, retail sales wil hold up through 1954. Inventories will constantly be reduced during 1954. The RETAILERS WHO DO BEST IN 1954 WILL BE THOSE WITH THE BEST PARKING FACILITIES FOR THEIR CUSTOMERS.

POLITICAL OUTLOOK

(6) I forecast that the more liberal attitude on the part of the Eisenhower Administration will surely continue through November and perhaps until the 1956 elections. During the past six months rumors have been spreading to the effect that President Eisenhower will not run again; but there is no agreement at this writing by either party as to who the next candidates will be.

(7) The President has won his conflict with Senator Bricker; the House approved his Tax Bill; the Taft-Hartley Labor Bill has been shelved, to the relief of all; and he has so far kept out of the McCarthy-Army row. I forecast that for the balance of the year he will leave domestic affairs to his associates and devote most of his time to helping Mr. Dulles ward off trouble with Russia and China, and avoid another Korea."

(8) During the first six months of the year a "New Look" has developed in conection with defense expenditures. Appropriations for foot soldiers and certain classes of airplanes have been cut in favor of items for atomic warfare and guided missiles. Best authorities agree that we will get more protection and fighting strength from this change with less cost. As a promise "to get our boys out of Korea" was a great factor in electing Dwight Eisenhower as President, he naturally wil hesitate to send U. S. foot soldiers into Indo-China, at least before the coming November elections.

WAR AND PEACE

(9) There will be no World War in 1954 started by Russia or the U. S. A. In the last half of 1954, however, the United States will move closer and closer to the position occupied by Great Britain during the 19th Century. The United States wil prepare to engage in small wars anywhere in order to prevent outbreak of a world conflagration.

(10) I predict that the United States in the last six months of 1954 may by-pass the United Nations and try to form a "defensive" league of nations interested in Southeast Asia. The purpose:

(21) Any psychological inflationary flare-ups that may take place as a result of war scares, big or little, will not be long-lived. They will definitely be dangerous to follow up. A word of warning: Don't get drawn into any speculative moves in commodities or stocks based on the outbreak of a small war. If the need arises, our Government will move with lightning swiftness to put controls into effect. They are already "triggered." The only real danger of any federal tax increases will come with the outbreak of another war.

LABOR, BUILDING, AND REAL ESTATE

(22) As to unemployment, I will say that this has increased some over last year, but if considered on a pre-capita basis, it is even less than that of five years ago. Look for a moderate reduction in the ranks of the unemployed during the last six months of 1954.

(23) The improvement which I expect in employment should not, however, be sufficient to make union leaders careless. Jobs will still be very much in demand. This should mean that the last half will see no prolonged strikes.

(24) Most union-management settlements will be made with a moderate amount of give and take. Any wage advances will be limited to the neighborhood of a reasonable hourly figure, plus some additional fringe benefits. The Administration and the Labor Leaders will not try to revamp the Taft-Hartley Bill during the last six months of 1954.

(b) Small farms on the fringes of big city suburbs should hold or rise in price as people get further away from city centers. This move could become an avalanche in the event of really serious war scares.

(c) I look for vacant land in the suburbs to hold its value well. In the big cities it may be another story, unless the land is suitable for parking purposes.

(d) Business properties in the big cities may ease somewhat in price during the last six months of this year. Suburban business properties can be expected to hold up. Demand for more shopping centers will be noticeable during the months to come.

(e) Home property (especially the older houses, particularly in the cities) will continue sagging in price. In the suburbs, the bigger houses, even of recent vintage, wil be harder to sell. Most salable home properties will be the newer houses in the middle and lower-price brackets with emphasis on the "ranch-houses" so-called.

(f) In the last half-year, construction will still be a powerful support to our economy as it has been for so long. Seasonally, building will hold well, strengthened by continued liberal credit terms. Some boost to building could come in the second half if civilian defense moves create a "dispersal scare." If this happens, look for a rush by many factories to move operations into areas far from bomb-vulnerable cities.

CONCLUSION: I cannot end this Forecast without reminding readers that we are living in a truly New Era, comparable only with the year I A.D., 1954 years ago, or the invention of printing 500 years ago. The H-Bomb, in the hands of any ambitious dictator, could bring about unparalleled conditions. These changes could make the things, about which I have written above, of little value or consequence. Only a great spiritual awakening can save us.

Are You A Heel At The Wheel

The National Safety Council, which is coordinating a nationwide Fourth of July safety campaign, holds up six mirrors. If you can see yourself in any of them, then be prepared to become a holiday statistic.

The Me-Firster—this is the selfish competitive character who must be first away from the traffic light, can't stand to have anyone pass him, and risks the life of anyone who gets in his way.

The Big I—this is the fellow who is too big for the rules. Others can obey the law and a code of decent and courteous behavior, but not this self-inflated big shot. He's above all that.

The Know-It-All—this driver is good, in his own estimation. He knows just what the other driver is going to do, just how fast he can stop, just how much room he needs to cut in on another car. But the only way this overconfident jerk escapes painful disillusionment is that the really good drivers give him a wide berth.

The Swashbuckler—this fellow thinks he expresses his masculinity or something by living dangerously behind the wheel. He believes that he who hesitates is lost, and that his luck will hold forever.

The Sorehead—this fellow is just plain hostile. He drives with a chip on his shoulder and is ready to lock fenders for any real or imagined wrong. He's sore at everyone, and very brave while surounded by a steel automobile with the windows rolled up.

The Show-Off—this is the exhibitionist. He's graduated from no hands on a bike to no sense at the wheel. He just wants people to admire his flashy performance, but most other drivers are too busy geting out of his way.

A heel at the wheel gets by because the good drivers give him the margin of safety he fails to give himself. But the heavy Fourth of July traffic will reduce that margin. Watch it!

Lake County Fair All Set For Aug. 21-28

The 102nd annual observance of the Lake County Central States Fair will be held August 21 through 28th at Crown Point, Phillip H. Darling of Hobart, President, announced today.

Elaborate plans to celebrate the second year of the exposition's second century of progress are being put into shape by the fair board, Darling said.

In keeping with its policy of making every year a "bigger and better" year during its century and two years of progress, the board has begun work on arranging for more outstanding agriculture and industrial exhibits, exciting carnival midway and grandstand attractions.

A "new look" costing an estimated $12,000 has been given the Crown Point fairgrounds this spring for the convenience of air visitors in August, Darling said.

This new look consists of rest rooms in the industrial building; a brand new structure for the fair maintenance staff, and a new fence.

The fair will have an added run this year too, according to Darling. Instead of checking exhibits and setting up the midway Saturday and Sunday as has been the custom in former years, entries will close at 10:00 p.m. Friday, August 20, and the exposition will officially open at noon Saturday, August 21, with a special ceremony marking the opening. Since the Fair will be completely set up and running, full admission will be charged beginning Saturday morning.

As a result of this early opening, exhibit entries will begin to be checked in Wednesday so that the fair will be in full swing and ready to go by Saturday, the fair president said. The carnival midway will move into the grounds a week early and all rides and equipment will be overhauled and reconditioned for the fair.

The Lake fair is sponsored by the Lake County Agricultural Society which was organized August 27, 1851.
