Greenbay Flood Discussed By Village Board

The Greenbay avenue flood problem was discussed to some length at the Village Board meeting Tuesday night at the Village Hall.

William Freeman of 17022 Greenbay avenue asked the board what it was going to do about the flooded condition which happens not only in such heavy downpours as that which occurred last week but whenever a heavy rainfall occurs.

Evert Schultz reported that the sewer and water committee had studied the problem and believe that a 12 inch extension sewer from 172nd and Greenbay to Burnham avenue sewer would solve the problem.

Freeman expressed the opinion that something more was necessary. That a storm sewer perhaps should be built between the 170th and 171st block on Greenbay with this sewer flowing into the 170th street sewer or into the Little Calumet river. Freeman stated that the Board should have the Village engineers check the problem and advise the Board.

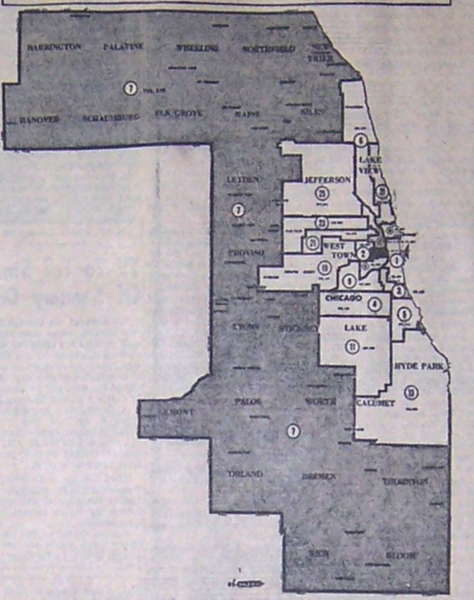
Why Blue Ballot Reapportionment Amendment Needs Your Vote



The unfair, un-American representation that now exists in Illinois is indicated in this map which compares the largest and the smallest legislative districts in the state. The 7th District, large shaded area, has a population of 850,000 as compared to the 39,000 population of the 17th District, the small shaded area. Yet, the 7th District, which includes most of the suburban towns of residential Cook County has the same representation in the legislature as the tiny, industrialized, "West Side Bloc" controlled 17th District. Every legislative district in Illinois is outvoted by the 17th district. The Blue Ballot Amendment will correct this situation, and is one of the reasons Blue Ballot supporters say that the Reapportionment Amendment carries out the American ideal of fair representation for all citizens in Illinois.

Lansing High Up To Voters

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the General Assembly, by an overwhelming vote of both Houses, has submitted for the consideration by the people of Illinois three proposed Amendments to the State Constitution, namely, the articles pertaining to the Reapportionment of the State's legislative districts, the term of the State Treasurer and the Illinois-Michigan Canal; and

WHEREAS, the said proposed Reapportionment Amendment has been endorsed by both major political parties and by many leading business, labor, agricultural, professional and civic groups as a vital change necessary to restore representative government to every citizen of the State; and

WHEREAS, it is in the interest of the people of the State of Illinois that, in the midst of the present political campaigns involving candidates for office, time should be set aside for thoughtful consideration of these Amendments to the State Constitution.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Evert Schultz, Mayor, do hereby proclaim the week commencing October 24, 1954, as "BLUE BALLOT WEEK" in Lansing, Illinois, and urge the voters of our city to give careful study and consideration to these constitutional amendments which will be submitted to them on a special Blue Ballot at the general election on November 2, 1954.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, Evert Schultz, have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the City of Lansing to be affixed this 20th day of October, A.D. 1954.

Evert Schultz,
Mayor.

The date for the public referendum which will decide whether Lansing will get a new high school is drawing near. The referendum date has been set as a week from Saturday, October 30 by the Thornton Fractional High School Board.

On this day voters of the High School District 215 which includes Calumet City, Burnham and Lansing will give their approval or disapproval on the proposals of the T. F. School Board.

The Thornton Fractional School Board unanimously agrees upon all of these proposals as the best possible solution for the expansion of the high school facilities in this district.

Their solution to the "School Expansion Problem" has been carefully made with the assistance of the Administrative Staff of the high school, the State Office of Education, the County Office of Education and the Field Services of the University of Chicago.

The School Board had a complete educational survey made by Dr. William Reavis of the University of Chicago who made similar studies and recommendations for the Lansing Elementary School Board.

After over a year of study upon the expansion problem and after receiving the recommendations of Dr. Reavis, the board has agreed unanimously with the recommendations of the survey.

These recommendations which have been reported in the Journal previously included the construction of a new complete high school in Lansing in a central location on a site of 25 to 30 acres. Dr. Reavis also in his report recommended the expansion of some parts of the present building to adequately accommodate the enrollment of that school.

Following through swiftly after reaching a decision on the best possible solution to the expansion problem the School Board has obtained an option on a site centrally located in Lansing bounded by Burnham avenue and Chicago avenue and the Lester Crawl School and 186th street.

The board has also obtained the services of Consoer and Morgan, Chicago architectural firm which specializes in school construction. The firm has presented the School Board with a schematic drawing and estimated cost on a new semi-campus type complete high school for Lansing.

The new school proposed to the voters of the district would cost an estimated $2,300,000.

The cost of expanding some parts of the present building has been estimated at $200,000.

The entire cost of the whole project has been set at $2,500,000. Breaking this figure down the Board states that this would mean that the average homeowner in the school district would pay about 35c a week in additional taxes or about the cost of a package of chewing gum a day to insure adequate educational facilities for the high school age students of the district. This would be reduced also as new construction is added to the tax rolls.

Lansing has two representatives on the Thornton Fractional School Board and they are in agreement with the steps taken by the board. These two men are Emil Rauguth of 2462 Ridge Road and Raymond Dockweiler of 18304 Burnham avenue.

Rauguth when asked by the Journal what the deciding factor was for his voting for a high school building in Lansing stated, "The straw poll conducted by the Lansing Journal earlier this year showed that Lansing was overwhelmingly in favor of a high school in Lansing, and this convinced me that it was my duty to put forth all my efforts to make the citizens wishes come true. Our plan for a building includes an auditorium which will be made available to groups of local citizens for civic affairs. This is definitely needed in our community. A gymnasium and swimming pool which will be included as part of the complete high school will also be made available to the public through an adult education program and also to other organized groups."

Dockweiler, commenting on the value of a high school building in Lansing said, "I have confidence in the enthusiasm of the Lansing Community, which exhibited itself so well in the past few years in meeting the needs of its elementary age children by building fine elementary schools, and in making the Centennial an outstanding success. I feel certain that the community will crown this Centennial year by making its educational program even more complete by building a much needed high school.

Meteors Edge Blue Island

Dahlkamp's Kick Wins Game For T.F.

by Bill Walter

After threatening twice earlier in the game, Thornton Fractional scored its only touchdown of the evening with forty seconds remaining in the last quarter to defeat Blue Island seven to six. The victory, Fractional's third in a row, placed the Meteers in a first place tie with Thornton of Harvey in the South Suburban League race. It also gave the Meteers an overall season mark of three wins and two losses.

Blue Island got off to an early lead in the first quarter when the Cardinals' flashy halfback, Bill Moore romped around left end for seventy yards and the touchdown. The try for the extra point failed and Blue Island led six to nothing. After their early touchdown the Blue Island offense cooled off and didn't seriously threaten for the remainder of the game.

The Meteors' offense began clicking effectively in the third quarter when after recovering a Blue Island fumble on the thirty yard line they moved deep into Cardinal territory. But the Meteors' touchdown hopes were soon shattered when on the next play they fumbled and Blue Island recovered on their own one yard line.

In the final quarter, with Leybleister, Stockle and Vierk packing the pigskin, Fractional again moved deep into Blue Island territory, only to lose the ball inside the five yard line on downs. Blue Island took over and immediately kicked out of danger to their own forty yard line.

With minutes remaining the Meteors started their scoring drive from the Blue Island forty and this time they were not to be denied. Jim Vierk went to work and hit fullback Stockle on passes of eleven and five yards. Then left end Rich Freeman pulled down another Vierk pass to take the Meteors to the Blue Island four yard line, where two plays later Ron Stockle plunged over to tie the score. Don Dahlkamp came in and promptly kicked the deciding extra point.

The Meteors were out-rushed by their opponents for the first time this season. Blue Island rolled up 176 yards rushing to 140 for Fractional. T.F. clicked on five out of nine passes for 37 yards while Blue Island hit on two of four passes for nineteen yards.

Fractional was penalized only twenty yards—a new low for the Meteors, while the Cardinals were moved back 55 yards due to violations. Both teams accounted for seven first downs apiece.

Next Friday the Meteors travel to Leyden in hopes of gaining their fourth straight victory.

T. F. Faculty Attends Teachers Institute

Students at Thornton Fractional High School had a holiday from school last Friday while faculty members attended Teacher's Institute of the South Shore Division of the Illinois Education Association at Evanston.

Friday, October 8, also marked a holiday for T.F. students while faculty members attended a Business, Education and Industry program with other Calumet area teachers.

T. F. Dramatic Club To Present "Down To Earth"

Thornton Fractional High school students are working hard to prepare the three-act fantasy "Down to Earth," which will be presented October 22 by the Dramatics Club.

The director is Robert J. Phillips, Dramatics Club sponsor.

The confusing and intriguing plot concerns two and one-half angels who come down to earth to lead our human lives toward heaven. The two angels, Agnes and Wilfred, concentrate on their missions, but it seems that Pilone, the half-angel and the mischief maker, has different ideas about the whole thing, for he continually manages to rearrange the plans of Agnes and Wilfred.

Tryouts held recently disclosed the cast members to be: Agnes, Iris Poliski; Wilfred, Chuck Huizenga; Pilone, Allan Grundstrom; June Bromsley, Virgie Lyder, Augusta Applegate, Marlene Lem; Orpha Teel, Ellen Krause; Millie Bromsley, Lois Weitkamp; Diana, Julie Wojciechowski; Robert Hanley, Dave Christian; Richard White, Ted Lutkus; Baxter Bromsley, Dave Jona; Human Havell, Norbert Adams.

Stage managing will be taken care of by Allen Herbst, while Bob Proctor will take care of the lighting.

Prompters are Audrey Peters, Pat Stralko, Ruth Mondryzk and Joan Foley.

Costumes will be taken care of by Julie Wojciechowski, Pat Murphy and Joline Wilson.

Students in charge of make-up are: Joan Wawrzniak, Mary Ann Westbowski and Marlene Meyers.

OUR WEEKLY SERMON

by Rev. Ralph Rice
Pastor of the Church of the Nazarene
"KEEP THY HEART"

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life (Prov. 4:23).

God has commissioned each of us to the greatest task in all the world—that of keeping our hearts aglow with divine love. Victorious Christian living does not come automatically. Each of us is charged with the responsibility of making and keeping himself spiritual. True, the power does not come from the human alone, but the initiative to receive help from God is with us. "Attend," "Incline," "Keep," "Put Away," "Look," "Ponder," "Turn," "Remove" — these are powerful words of direction. It is ours and ours alone to be more spiritual or less spiritual. It is ours to serve more or to serve less. And at the center of the Christian life and activity is the condition of the heart.

Let us keep our hearts informed by a study of God's word; let us keep them alive by attendance at all of the services of His church. Let us Keep our Hearts aflame at the altars of daily devotions; let us Keep them in tune by friendliness and brotherly fellowship with the brethren. Let us Keep our Hearts filled with a love to God which consumes our bodies, minds and spirits; let us Keep them filled with a concern for our fellow men which would carry us out to share their burdens. Let us "Keep our Hearts," for in so doing every other phase of life will be touched and we shall be motivated to higher levels of Christian Service.

"Operation-Girl Scouting"

"Operation-Girl Scouting" has become a real challenge to the Girl Scouts of the Calumet Council. More and more girls are desiring membership in the Girl Scouts, and it is the purpose of the council to handle these requests as soon as qualified leaders and adults can be recruited, trained, and placed to help extend the program.

The Girl Scouts of the Calumet Council, a community chest agency, is a group chartered as of Feb. 1, 1954, including Lansing, Calumet City, Munster, Highland, Dyer, Schererville St. John, Griffith, Whiting and Hammond. They have been going through an organizing phase of their new council's work, and are now beginning to see the results of this re-organization.

Lansing has contributed much toward this Girl Scout council. At the present time the total council membership is 5620, including 1363 adult workers. Lansing alone has thirty-two troops registered. In addition to this there are many serving people, serving administratively on the board, as neighborhood officers, and on committees.

Included in this group are Mrs. Howard Bertram, president of the Calumet Council; Mrs. Edwin Shors, district chairman of District V; Mrs. John Linn, council meetings chairman and day camp chairman; Mrs. Cora Wangercyn, neighborhood chairman; Mrs. Harold Boehme, neighborhood secretary; Mrs. Edna Homer, neighborhood chairman; Mrs. Fred Zwinger, neighborhood secretary.

Serving on board committees are Tom Leahy and Irving Vierk, finance committee; Mrs. Wm. Hughes and Mrs. Allele Olson, training committee; Mrs. Wm. Hughes, day camp committee; Mrs. Thelma Weikamp, troop organization committee; Mrs. Marie Owen and Gus Persson, troop camp committee.

All registered adults in Scouting living in Lansing are also members of the neighborhood adult associations, known as Lansing East and Lansing West. Those leaders living east of Burnham avenue with their co-leaders and troop committee members are members of Lansing East. Those leaders living west of Burnham Avenue, with their co-leaders and troop committee members, are members of Lansing West. Interested adults are welcome to attend the neighborhood meetings.

To date 4300 hours of training has been given to adults in Scouting. Included in this are initial group leadership courses for beginning leaders, workshops and round tables for experienced leaders, day camp site director's training, established camp staff training, individual conferences with leaders, board and committee training.

Scheduled in the immediate future are courses for trainers in outdoor leadership and trainers in group leadership. By the end of 1954, it is anticipated by the training committee that over 6000 hours of training will have been completed. This is in direct line with the needs expressed by the organization at the time the council began its work.

43% of the council's membership had a camping experience this year. This is a remarkably fine record for this first year of operation. Operating were eleven day camps including day camps at Sweet Woods, Jurgensen's Woods, and Sleepy Hollow. Also operating are two troop camp sites during the fall, spring, and summer months, Happy Acre and Sleepy Hollow. In addition the established camp, Camp Pottawattomie, was in operation during the month of August. One of the highlights for Senior Scouts were the many trip camps to points all over the United States as an advanced form of camping. More and more requests for additional outdoor programs are facing the council.

These are only a few of the accomplishments of the Calumet Council in the nine months of its operation. Much more is waiting to be done, but sound long-term planning is underway to accomplish the council goal: to extend to every girl who desires membership an opportunity to join and to actively participate in good troop program.

Congressman William E. McVey

CAN WE TRUST OUR ALLIES WITH VITAL SECRETS?

The answer seems to be "No." It took only one Englishman, Klaus Fuchs, to transmit to Russia the facts about the atomic bomb. True, he is serving a prison sentence, but he laid this country open to an attack by atomic bombs perhaps months or years before that would have been possible. In that way, he jeopardized the homes and the lives of millions. There is a question in the minds of many as to whether a death sentence might not be more appropriate for treason of the nature committed by Klaus Fuchs.

Now, we are faced with a spy ring in Paris—the defection of men who are in possession of many of the vital secrets of this country. France has 100 Communist Deputies in its National Assembly. How can we really expect a country so infested with infiltration itself not to contain someone who would pass vital secrets on to Russia?

Then, the treachery of MacLean and Burgess in the British Foreign Office is still fresh in our memory. They were vested with much important information flowing between our State Department and the British Foreign Office. They are now entrenched behind the Iron Curtain.

There has recently come to light some damnable information with regard to the Korean War. The evidence of loose security among the governments allied with the United States points to the grave possibility that many American lives were lost because of the transmission of vital secrets to the enemy.

Both General Van Fleet, 8th Army Commander, and General Willowby, who was in charge of Intelligence Operations, now say that the Chinese must have known beforehand that their planes would not be molested beyond the Yalu, and that they were confident their mainland would not be bombed. It is said they would not have taken the risk of entering the war if they had thought otherwise.

Our relationship with the United Nations, and the necessity of consulting with their Members regarding military operations, constitutes a decided hazard. If we cannot depend upon their secrecy, our military operations become an open book to all. Our country suffered in Korea, 142,000 American casualties. The lives of all who died were dear to them. Our generals fought that war with their hands tied behind their backs. What a tragic way to conduct a war! Should we have another war, will our young people face the same treachery among our allies that we have seen in recent months? This is something for all Americans to think about.

Martha Washington, wife of President George Washington was previously married to Daniel Parke Curtis.

Modern Lamps Light The Way To Economy

How much electric lighting has progressed in seventy-five years, and how the widespread use of current for home, industrial and farm uses has reduced its cost, are shown in comparative figures released today in connection with the celebration of Light's Diamond Jubilee scheduled for October 21.

If you were to light a room with one modern 100-watt lamp for 1,000 hours and another room to the same degree of brightness with replicas of the first incandescent lamp invented by Thomas A. Edison in 1879, the contrast would be astonishing.

Suppose you paid 3½ cents per kilowatt-hour for electric current and then endeavored to light a third room just as brilliantly with candles, replacing them as they burned down during the 1,000 hours period—a little more than 41½ days.

Your bill would be: for room number 1, with its modern lamp, $3.50; for room number 2, with its flock of old-timers, $40.74; for room number 3, with its battery of perishing candles, $1,500.

The chances are, too, that you would have some replacement charges on the equipment in room number 2 ($7.57, estimate), for most of the bulbs produced in the early days of electric lamps gave up the ghost long before 1,000 hours.

What next, Mr. Edison?

In celebrating Light's Diamond Jubilee, we honor Thomas A. Edison, whose first practical light bulb was successfully tested October 21, 1879.

If you were alive today, we think you'd be proud of the electrical industry and what it's done for America.

The industry you started back in 1879 with a single light bulb has made life better, richer, and more productive for all of us.

Work-saving electrical appliances do the cooking, cleaning, washing, ironing, and drying in our homes.

Electrical machines make jobs easier, faster, and safer for everyone who works in a factory, in an office, or on a farm.

Electricity lights our way . . . entertains us . . . cools us . . . warms us . . . does all these things for only a few pennies a day.

If you were alive today, you'd see new ideas in electricity promising an even better way of life for our future.

You'd see new things coming . . . new and better appliances . . . new methods of communication . . . new industrial ideas . . . new farm equipment . . . and perhaps other ideas so new we haven't even guessed at them yet.

25 years from now, some of these ideas will have taken their place in our lives beside your light bulb. Which one will be most important to mankind? Which one will be first?

What next, Mr. Edison?

Churches To Appeal For Adopt Of Blue Ballot Amendment

Appeals for adoption of the Blue Ballot Reapportionment Amendment will be made in churches and synagogues all over Illinois between now and the November 2 general election.

Religious leaders will use pulpit announcements, sermons, and church bulletins to remind voters of the "moral implications of the proposed amendment," according to Samuel W. Witwer, Jr., Chairman of the Illinois Committee for Constitutional Revision, the civic group composed of 78 business, labor, farm and civic organizations, that is leading the Blue Ballot campaign.

The Amendment provides for the first remapping of Illinois Legislative districts since 1901. The remapping would strike at the power of the notorious "West Side Bloc" by revamping all of the Chicago-dominated districts, now among the smallest in the state. It would also equalize representation among downstate districts.

With plans for extensive activity by Chicago churches already underway, similar downstate Blue Ballot appeals are also anticipated with the announcement today of the endorsement of the Blue Ballot by the Board of Directors of the Illinois Church Council.

More than 3,500 downstate Protestant Ministers representing the African Methodist Episcopal, American Baptist Convention, Church of the Brethren, Community, Congregational Christian, Disciples of Christ, Evangelical and Reformed, Evangelical United Brethern, Friends, Methodist, Presbyterian USA and United Presbyterian denominations belong to the Council.

Harry M. Davis of Springfield is president of the Council. Other officers are Fred Allrich, Highland, vice-president, and Ray A. Kale, associate executive secretary of Springfield who announced the board's action.

The Church Federation of Greater Chicago had endorsed the amendment earlier. Dr. John W. Harms, Executive Vice-president of the Church Federation, has announced an extensive program, including sermons, film showings, bulletins, Sunday School study and other activities, by most of the 1,450 churches in the greater Chicago area that belong to the Federation.

Mr. Witwer said that he had also received assurance of cooperation from the Catholic clergy of the Chicago archdiocese.

Jewish rabbis are also expected to urge their congregations to vote Yes on the Reapportionment Amendment, according to Rabbi J. J. Weinstein of KAM Temple Chicago, a member of the board of directors of the Illinois Committee for Constitutional Revision.

Witwer said that religious leaders will be asked to pay special attention to the Blue Ballot on be week-end of October 16 with special emphasis on "Laymen's Sunday," October 17.

"It is our hope that every Church and Synagogue in Illinois will do something to call attention to the Blue Ballot at this time," Witwer said.

The cooperation of religious leaders all over the state will also be sought in connection with distribution of Blue Ballot literature and of a million tags urging citizens to vote and to vote on the Blue Ballot.

Besides the church organizations, many religious lay groups have endorsed the amendment and are working for its adoption. These include the Catholic Lawyers Guild, the Illinois Council of Church Women, the Conference of Jewish Women's Organizations, and many more similar groups participating in the Citizens of Greater Chicago's city-wide campaign for the amendment.

"The extensive religious support of the Blue Ballot is based on the growing recognition that we must, once and for all, end the disgraceful moral breakdown in government that is implicit in the half-century flouting of a clear Constitutional requirement," Witwer commented.

Religious leaders are expected to point out that democracy in Illinois for generations to come is at stake in the November 2 Blue Ballot, according to Witwer.

"Today, millions of Illinois citizens are actually deprived of an equal vote in the selection of the Senate and House constituting the State Legislature. Here in Lincoln Land—of all the States of the Union — our traditions demand that we end the present breakdown of true representative government. The Blue Ballot Reapportionment Amendment offers us this great opportunity."

69 T. F. Students Enrolled In Auto Driving Course

Sixty nine students are enrolled for the course in auto driving which began this month at Thornton Fractional High School.

Lessons are conducted by the Lake County Driving School of Indiana. There are twenty lessons in the course. The group lessons are planned to teach the students rules of the road and to help them develop a favorable mental attitude concerning their driving.

The individual lessons are lessons in actually driving the car.

The total cost of the course is twenty dollars, ten of which is paid by the school district and ten is paid by the student. The driving school supplies the cars, gas, oil and necessary insurance.

At the completion of the lessons, an official from the state license office gives the necessary examinations. No Fractional student has ever been turned down for lack of driving ability.

This course is offered exclusively for Fractional students, the system being started at Fractional five years ago. At that time there was only thirty students taking advantage of the course in comparison with the 69 enrolled this semester.
