After TFN Walkout: Back To Normal

By ADELINE McGAHEN

(Calumet City News Editor)

Things settled back to normal at TF North High School as administration members met with student leaders to try to reach some measure of understanding on the issue which precipitated the walkout of some 400 students on Tuesday.

Rumors, that Jack Coleman, industrial arts teacher, was being fired circulated in Calumet City for a week before the walkout was staged.

Coleman is not being fired, he has a contract to the end of the year. However, as Coleman puts it, "he is not being extended a contract for the next school year."

Coleman contends that the evaluation of his performance is not true.

Board members are not commenting on the student support of Coleman, on the student walkout, nor the tenure contract. They met in an hour and half executive session Tuesday evening and following the session, Robert Collins, board president, issued a statement that the board was not prepared to discuss the walkout because Principal Paul Radziejeski was not present. Radziejeski is due back from an out of town visit today.

A 500 man petition supporting Coleman was allegedly circulated by the student council. Charles Whalen, superintendent, claims he never saw the petition, "but it may be somewhere in the school. I heard about it, but never saw it."

Coleman denied that the difference of opinion between him and his superior occurr ed over a field trip to Ford Motor Company. Department head Louis M. Conn, said Coleman, approved the field trip, "I did not go over his head."

Coleman told the SUN-JOURNAL he had one meeting with administration on the contract next year. The manner in which the whole issue is being handled, says Coleman, "is placing myself and the Board of Education and administration into a sort of rivalry when this is properly a time there should be negotiations."

Tuesday evening Coleman was present in the large audience of parents, teachers and many students for the board meeting. Coleman's following was likened to the support Joe DeSoto got at TF South when he was fighting to hold to major extra-curricular positions. This time TF North had a cause to support.

Coleman indicated that he is instituting grievance procedures and Dennis Zygmunt, union president, agreed that this avenue was open to Coleman.

Jim Gard, president of the senior class was among the students clustered around Coleman during the SUN-JOURNAL interview. He described the student action in the walkout "as something drastic" the students felt they must do "since nothing came of the petitions."

"The students say they want Mr. Coleman to stay as a teacher at TF North. I've only known him as a hall monitor. As far as I know, he is a pretty nice man."

Mike DeLuigi was a student under Coleman in freshman industrial arts. He said, "I think he is a rather good teacher. He is a qualified man, competent, and a pleasant man to talk to."

Coleman came to TF North two years ago from Indiana State University where he had been an instructor and graduate student. Prior to that he was employed in industry "primarily with General Motors in research and development." He is married and has two sons one age 15, and one six.

Generally speaking when a teacher is not being extended a tenure contract, he or she is given the option to resign. Coleman says he will not resign, to do so would be to admit that the evaluation of his services was valid. "I can prove that evaluation to be wrong."

Coleman claims his superior "does not like the way I grade. I believe in letting as many pass as possible."

The support of the students overwhelmed him a little, but it proved one point, said Coleman. "The students at TF North want to have something to say about their education, they want to be involved and they should be heard."

The board indicated Tuesday it is reviewing the whole method of evaluation and offering of tenure contracts.

You may have heard of a surprise birthday party but probably not much on Surprise Birthday Assemblies as the one at Coolidge School might very well be a first. Students held the program for Coolidge Principal Roy Hagen (right) last week. An impromptu skit is performed by, left, Mike DePirro, Scott Macek, Krista Nelson and Deborah Koepp. (SUN Photo)

Big Trees From Little Acorns Grow . . . Illiana Auxiliary Is 25 Years Old

A luncheon at the Red Lion Restaurant in Steger, Ill., early this month, marked the 25th anniversary of the Ladies Auxiliary of Illiana Christian High School. Present for the celebration were 12 of the 16 past presidents and 161 members, former members and friends.

Mrs. Sibyl Monsma, the organization's first president, spoke on the topic "Walking with Jesus." The program included Illiana band members performing in a Clarinette Choir and Brass Quartette. Mrs. Dick Jolink, current president, led the group on a walk though the organization's history.

A solo, "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked" was given by Mrs. Mildred Van Proyen. After Mrs. Harry Rodenburg closed the day with a prayer, the entire assembly arose and sang "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."

The auxiliary was formed in the spring of 1946 by a group of dedicated women who foresaw a need arising for a school that was meeting in the Lansing Christian Reformed Church basement and unused portion of the Lansing Christian School and later in a CCC Camp barracks.

In 1948, when the Illiana Christian High School building on Indiana Avenue was completed, the Ladies' Auxiliary had already raised enough money by way of bake sales, silver teas, luncheons and bazaars to take on the obligation of paying for the risers that the school's choir would need. Through the years the school has grown. On completion of the chapel, the auxiliary helped to purchase a piano, a lectern and seats. The library received $12,050 and $15,450 was paid to the science department.

One of the first additions to the school was a section that included the gym, cafeteria and kitchen. The school paid the original cost of the kitchen but the auxiliary paid for all equipment, including a large commercial refrigerator, several stoves, coffee maker, etc. totaling close to $6,000. Within the last few years a larger dishwasher was installed for approximately $2,000.

With the finishing of the kitchen in 1956, the ladies began catering to more and more dinners. Many women help to make these dinners a financial success. Some prepare the food, others set tables, others cook and still others serve as waitresses.

Two of the original dinner committee members are still serving in this capacity, Mrs. Jennie Vander Wall of Munster, chairman, and Mrs. Mildred Hoeksema of Lansing. In 1957 the dinner committee began preparing and selling barbeques to the students once each week. This grew to such an extent that a special barbeque committee was formed. Now the vicar of the auxiliary is barbeque chairman with an assistant as co-chairman.

The first "hostess" supper, now an annual event, took place in January of 1959. The attendance was 560 persons and the offering amounted to $589. In January of 1972, some 756 persons attended and $2,051.61 was contributed. This money has been given toward the debt left on the new gym floor.

The auxiliary also contributed $5,500 to the original gym fund. Janitor and office supplies, teacher and student grants, the athletic association and the Fine Arts Festival are all areas in which the women have contributed in the 25-year period, along with many gifts for the school's music program. Currently, the organization has undertaken the obligation of refurbishing the chapel, having spent $7,000 to date.

Besides the dinners and hostess suppers, other sources of income have been a Thanksgiving program sponsored annually for 15 years and a canteen run by the women to supply refreshments for spectators at the baseball games.

During the group's first years, roll call was taken at each meeting and dues were paid by members and associate members. At the present time a freewill offering is taken at each meeting and membership consists of any mother or guardian of an Illiana student and any other woman interested in the cause of Illiana Christian High School.

American Legion Unit Slates Initiation

Initiation ceremonies are planned when American Legion Auxiliary Calumet Memorial Unit 330 meets April 17. Mrs. John Wirtes, membership chairman, will be in charge.

When the women met March 21, Mrs. Robert Craig gave the invocation. Guests for the evening were Mrs. Carl Meadows, 8th District president of Evergreen Park and Mrs. Kenneth Cox, 8th District secretary, also from Evergreen Park.

Mrs. Anthony Baginski, foreign relations chairman, reported on Kenya. A $10 donation was approved for CARE and $10 was voted for the Auxiliary Emergency Fund.

Mrs. Walter Romszewicz reported on the Cook County Council.

Attending a recent patriotic conference were Miss Janice Baginski, president; Mrs. Stella Vesolowski, Mrs. Robert Craig and Mrs. Romszewicz.

A gift was presented to Mrs. Pearl Romszewicz by Mrs. Meadows for outstanding work with the auxiliary, given by Mrs. Stella Vesolowski, past president and past 8th District director. A charter members, Mrs. Romszewicz has been with the Calumet City auxiliary since July 1925.

Games and door prizes for the evening were handled by Mrs. Walter Majda and Mrs. Charles Weber.

Far Eastern Influence Makes Menus Exciting

The Far Eastern influence in foods is growing in the American home. But the foods prepared by American homemakers are greatly simplified versions of those prepared by cooks in the Orient.

The prime rule to remember in Chinese cookery is not to overcook. Vegetables should be delicately tender, but not mushy, and the sweet-sour dishes should establish a just-right combination of both.

In the Orient, the serving of Peking duck is the sign for drinking rice wine.

This time-honored dish originally took almost a whole day to prepare. Today's easy-to-prepare version has a traditional plum-like sauce made by combining pure grape jelly with mustard, ginger and garlic. This sauce not only enhances the flavor of duckling, but casts a beautiful dark red gaze on the surface of the fowl.

Duckling Marco Polo receives its tantalizing flavor from spiced marmalade glaze. Leftover turkey or chicken can be the main ingredient for turkey Oriental, quickly made with canned chicken giblet gravy.

Annual Sale Of Poppies

Disabled veterans of the Vietnam war are now sharing in the benefits of the annual sale of V.F.W. Buddy Poppies, according to Commander Philip Porter of Ehinger Bros. Post No. 8141, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

"The casualty rate of the Vietnam war has already surpassed that of the Korean War and combat disabilities have been suffered by tens of thousands more" Commander Porter said. "These men and their families are being aided by the Veterans of Foreign Wars along with those from previous wars.

He pointed out that a portion of the proceeds of the sale of V.F.W. Buddy Poppies which will be held in this area on May 5, 6 and 7, will be used to augment money raised by dues of members of the overseas veterans group to provide claims counseling and assistance to disabled veterans.

The balance of the funds contributed by the public during the Poppy sale are used for direct relief to local disabled and needy veterans and their families, for the support of the Veterans of Foreign Wars National Home for orphans of deceased veterans and for programs in the various veterans hospital and facilities.

According to Commander Porter, the need for claims counseling is especially great at the present time. "Proof of service-connection of disabilities suffered by discharged servicemen is required before they can qualify for compensation", he said. "The Veterans of Foreign Wars operates Claims Service offices in every state of the union and in Washington, D.C. to assist in gathering and presenting the necessary evidence".

Chairman of the Buddy Poppy Drive for 1972 is Stanley Klekot, Jr. Vice Commander who will be assisted by Co-Chairman, George Krum. The poppy display chairman is post member John Cook. The Ladies Auxiliary annually support the post in the Poppy Drive and Auxiliary Chairman is Mrs. John P. Churilla, Jr. Vice President, assisted by co-chairman, Mrs. Ben Richter. Sullivan League To Have Two Divisions

At the last John Sullivan league meeting, voting was completed to have a twelve team league. This league will be divided into two divisions known as the American and National.

Eighteen Sundays and Holidays will comprise the schedule with each division playing each other twice and playing the rival league once. There will be two rounds of nine games each. At the end of the season first and second round winners will play a one game play-off with the rival league. They will meet in a two out of three championship series.

League play will start May 21, 1972. An all-star game will be played mid-season on Saturday, July 8, at Lan Oak Park to honor the Lansing Old Timers Senior Baseball Team. The Old Timers will be playing in their twenty-eighth season. This team started in 1945 as the Lansing Merchants and played in the old South Suburban League in which the Sullivan League took over some sixteen years ago.

The teams will be divided as follows:

American Division
Lansing Old Timers
Griffith
Richton Park
Kankakee
Markham
South Holland Merchants

National Division
C.N.A. Royals
Bauer Buick
Chicago Yankees
Bisons
Coaches Corner
Gary City Giants

Any baseball players who are interested and capable of playing in this competition with the Old Timers Team should call Ed. Carlson, General Manager, at 474-0136 for more information. Mr. Joe Ricci will again be the manager for the team.

If there is a classy group of cheerleaders who have stood behind their heroes the entire season, expecting no reward, it would be the Thornridge cheerleaders. These nine lovely young ladies opened many an eye at Champaign with their precision-like movements and drills. (SUN Photo)

TFN Frosh Complete Best Year

TF North's freshman basketball team just recently completed the most successful season in the school's history. The young Meteors lost their last game of the season to a strong Lincolnway outfit, to end the season with a 23-1 record. This erased the previous record of 20-2 set by last year's frosh team.

Leading the frosh this year was high scoring super forward Randy Nevell, who hit on 58% of his shots from the floor, totaling 615 points, an average 25.6 points per game. (all school records).

Second in scoring was John Sikich with an 11.3 points per game average. John also set a school record by gobbling 272 rebounds in a single season. Handling the ball was done by two outstanding guards in Tom Reiplinger and Richard Stanke. Stanke set a school record for the most assists in one season, 169 and was followed by Reiplinger with 129 scoring feeds.

The freshmen capped first place honors in their own Holiday tournament and were runner-ups in the Titan Post Season Basketball Tournament.

Go To The Head Of The Class

While some TF South seniors were laboring in the Village of Lansing on Turnabout Day, March 16, many other seniors were assuming teacher, guidance and office positions at the school.

The Turnabout Teachers had many of the advantages that the real teachers have. They were allowed to walk the halls, reprimand evil-doers, and to watch their classes squirm.

If one committed an "absolutely not" they would be sent to "Dean" Janet Sterbenc or "Dean" Jerry Edwards – depending on the offender's sex.

"Secretaries," Marsha Vaughan and Marsha Anderson were on hand in the general office to the school's administration. Kathy Varga took care of the dean's secretarial work. Candy Coyle took over the guidance office's typewriter.

Other jobs that provide student services were also fully staffed. Debby Rowley spent the day selling school supplies in the bookstore as head of that department. Rhonda Kowalski spent her day among rows and rows of shelved books. "Nurse" Carey Halsey stuck thermometers into students mouths and bandaged the sick and wounded.

To help all the students with their psychological problems and scheduling of classes, guidance counselors Kim Milazzo, Lori Boehm, Carol Groth, Kim Coyle, Terri Evans, Barb VanderPloeg and Shireley Reid were on hand to take over guidance duties.

Driving around town with those "lethal" students drivers were Bob Lauer, Mike Rubino and Steve McGilvrey as they played driver's ed instructors.

Connie Trojnar, Kathy Koch, Marci Schultz, Anna Roesel, Bob Parrent, Don DeSitter, Ted Miles, and Carolyn Maxeiner read the works of Shakespeare, Shelly and Keats to their classes to help them appreciate good literature.

Speaking out as speech teachers were John Cain, Joe Sadowski, Rich Randall and Nancy Grieve.

One two, one two, one – keep those stomachs in and those chests out said Jane Newton, Nancy Crocilla, Tom Sabados, Debbie Archer, Annette Lightner, Debbie Maravilla, Carla Malinski and Roxanne Synder and Polly Camalick, all physical ed. teachers.

Math teachers for-a-day were Nancy Golinski, Phil Madgiak, Sue Gramse, Mark Ellis, Dave Eichhorn and Terry Brown.

In South's fine arts departments Tom Hay, Mary Slattery and Fred Morganthaler could be found teaching music. Linda Elliott, Linda Leadbetter and Karen Morgan did their teaching with paint brushes.

Cary Shapiro, Art Wiers, Bill Kottas, Dave Gurnic, Mary Alkinski, Cathy Capriglione and Terri Glidden were social studies teachers.

Teaching what makes the business world go round were Marty Berda, Valerie Zeppi, Nancy Fessler, Debbie Gillespie and Pat Banet.

Pat Sullivan, Dan Skipton and Dan Halon took care of the Home Economics Department.

Renee Kmak, Steve Fish, Kathy Hassig, Sylvia Feleese and Bonnie McDaniel spoke in foreign tongues to their language classes.

Jim Paryl "chemistry teacher," was the only one to try his hand at teaching science.

Robert Roy replaced Ernie Nolan, TF South's jack-of-all trades.

Drug Panel Available To Administrators

A speaker's panel of specialists in drug problems has been developed by three Cook County agencies and is available to groups in the Cook County area. The agencies are the Educational Service Region of Cook County, the States Attorney's office and Sheriff Elrod's Youth Services Department.

Through the speakers' broad range of experience, the drug problem will be brought into sharp focus for teachers, parents, students, and various organizations.

Panel members include:

...Dr. Donald Klein, Assistant Superintendent to Richard J. Martwick, Cook County Superintendent of Schools, a specialist in curricular concepts and methodology for implementing viable drug programs in the schools.

...David Harris, Youth Contact Worker of Sheriff Elrod's Youth Services department, who will describe the assistance his office is offering to those individuals who find themselves presently involved in a drug dilemma.

...Leonard H. Tyrrell, Project Director of the States Attorney's Rehabilitation Program, who will interpret ways and means employed to rehabilitate convicted drug offenders.

At a recent meeting of the American School Health Association in Chicago, Dr. Frederick Flach of Cornell University said that "drugs should be discussed in school, but only in the correct context, as part of a deeper and broader perspective." He pointed out that teachers must be better educated about drugs and drug related problems so that they "can help create an over-all school environment conducive to individual growth without drugs."

Dr. Klein's discussion will introduce new methods of teaching about drugs. This will take into account classroom climate, teachers' attitudes, communication difficulties, and the teaching of relevancies, values, and self-awareness as well as concepts and activities for drug programs.

Dr. Klein who has been moderator at conferences on drugs for educators in Cook County suburban school districts, says that "teaching about drugs is based on the belief that drug abuse is related to a person's individual value system and his assessments of the consequences associated in the involvement with drugs. Teaching then, should be related to the influence of values on behavior and basic techniques utilizing awareness, insights and values."

Sheriff Elrod's Youth Services department acts as a coordinating agent among suburban police departments, interested civic groups and local social agencies, has a staff of 14 working with various types of problems of minors both in and out of school. An emergency referral center is being implemented as an alternative to referring youths to the criminal justice system and will provide an emergency source for problems such as suicides, runaways, drugs and legal and general referral counselling.

Youth Services attempts to reach young people at the stages where rehabilitation efforts have the best chance for success by referrals to social agencies and treatment sources for young people who have not yet been judged delinquents.

The States Attorney's Rehabilitation Program is involved with drug abuse prevention through attitudinal change, counseling and supervision rather than traditional punishment through incarceration. Deferred prosecution is primarily directed toward youthful first offenders. The program consists of instruction-discussion sessions analyzing the psychological and social causes as well as the harmful effects of drug abuse. They also provide contact with and information about persons, facilities and agencies working to prevent drug abuse. Discussion leaders are selected from the staffs of Gateway Houses Foundation and the Illinois Drug Abuse Program.

For further information on the drug panel, contact Mr. Donald Nie, Panel Moderator, at the Educational Service Region of Cook County, Civic Center - Room 407, Clark and Washington Streets, 321-7609.

NOTICE TO READERS AND ADVERTISERS

THE FEDERAL Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits employers with 25 or more employees from discrimination in employment because of sex unless such discrimination is qualification for a particular position. The placement of an advertisement by such an employer or by an employment agency under any of the SUN JOURNALS traditional help wanted headings must not in itself be considered as an expression of a preference, limitations, specification or discrimination based on sex. These headings are a convenience to our readers to let them know which positions would ordinarily be of more interest to one sex than the other because of the work involved. Employers covered by the Civil Rights Act will interview and consider any qualified applicant of either sex for a position offered unless there exists a bona fide occupational qualification for that position.
