Molenhouse's Dreams Come True

By RANDY HELLMANN
(Of the Sun-Journal Staff)

George Molenhouse has had two dreams for quite some time. Shortly, they will both be coming true.

As Lan Oak Park superintendent, George has made it evident of his love for animals. He has watched the park and its zoo grow up a great deal in terms of variety.

He started the zoo in 1970 after park police chief John Horgesheimer gave him an opossum. Since then, all sorts of animals have found their way from generous neighbors to the zoo. However, even with all the generosity exhibited by Lansingites, there were two animals George always wanted – a buffalo and a deer. No longer will they be a mere dream in George's mind.

A buffalo and deer are "on the way", thanks to some benevolant Lansingites. The big, burly, bison, a gift from the Bank of Lansing, First Federal Savings and Loan, Harry Boskamp and Peter VanDerNoord, will find his new living quarters quite cozy upon his arrival. A semi-trailer, donated by James Fritz, has been remodeled into a buffalo abode, with a yard outside it for the buffalo to roam around in.

Another problem which has been considered and remedied is the buffalo's loneliness. George's other dream, the deer, should arrive shortly to keep the buffalo constant company. The Kopper Muggers of Lansing made arrangements for the deer.

All donors will be honored for their generosity when the zoo officially opens. Meanwhile area youngsters are already enjoying other aspects of the mini-Brookfield.

Molenhouse and his energetic park maintenance crew have moved a majority of the animals from their winter haunts in the quonset hut to the outside zoo area in Bock Park.

Over fifty animals, including pigeons, raccoons, quail, doves, chickens, and owls have already made their appearance.

Species making their premiere debut this year include goats, a gift from the Lansing Liquor Association; and sheep from John Witvoet.

Zoo frequenters from last year will note four animals missing from last year's cast of characters. A sly, old fox managed to escape during the winter months, while an opossum, skunk, and chinchilla passed on to the zoo in the sky.

The four departed animals will no doubt be missed by zoo-goers, but the buffalo and deer should make up for some of the loss. And who knows? With Molenhouse's charisma and the residents of Lansing's generosity don't be too surprised if sometime in the not too distant future Chinese Pandas make their appearance right in the Lan-Oak zoo. It sounds like something the big-hearted people of Lansing could arrange.

Add Three Teachers To Illiana Christian

Three new faculty members have been added to Illiana Christian High School for the 1972-73 school term.

Lon Eriks, a 1967 graduate of Illiana, will become the school's first full-time art instructor. A 1971 graduate of Hope College, in Holland, Michigan, will replace William Westerhoff, who has been awarded a teaching assistantship at the University of Illinois in Champaign.

Miss Audrey Baker will be the new girl's physical education instructor. Miss Baker is no new face at Illiana Christian. She taught there for three years before leaving to work on her master's degree at the University of Michigan. She will be replacing retiring Marlene Blankespoor.

Miss Corrine Vander Schaaf, who will graduate in June from the California State Polytechnic College, will join the English department in the fall. She will be replacing Mrs. Dawn Korringa, who is moving to Kankakee.

Changes will also be seen in the athletic department. Roger Smit, physical education instructor and head basketball coach has accepted a position at Dayton Christian School in Dayton, Ohio. A replacement to fill his post has not yet been hired. Len Allman, the current band instructor will be leaving Illiana Christian to attend graduate school at Western Michigan University.

3 Hurt In Crash

A three-car collision at 9:30 Sunday evening at the intersection of Ridge and School St., Lansing, resulted in minor cuts and abrasions for three persons.

Terrance L. Hoffman, 20, of 1995 Lincolnwood, Schererville, the driver of the third vehicle, was arrested for disobeying a stop sign, possession of open liquor, and possession of dangerous drugs. Police identified the substance found as cocaine.

According to police, the accident occurred when Hoffman's vehicle, southbound on School St., collided with one of the other two cars.

Treated and released from St. Margaret's Hospital were, John J. Hargus, 21, of 228 Pulaski, Calumet City; Paul H. Blievernicht, 52, of 271 Blackhawk, Park Forest; and Mark Wohrle, 20, of 18101 Schrier, Munster. Wohrle was a passenger in Hoffman's car, a 1972 Chevrolet Vega.

Hoffman will stand trial on the three charges on July 8, in Midlothian.

Lansing police attempt to get William Westerhoff off the pavement near 181st and Torrence where he fell after reportedly scuffling with police Saturday evening. Lansing police reported Westerhoff became involved in a fight inside a Torrence Ave. tavern. As he was handcuffed by Lansing police and escorted out of the tavern, he began to scuffle with officers. He was charged with public intoxication.

Mud Trapped Youth Rescued

What started out as an exploration for tadpoles by a 13-year-old youth in an area near his home almost turned into a tragedy when the youth became stuck in the mud in a trench dug to lay sewer lines.

Gregory John Gawel, 13, of 14420 Calhoun Ave., was wading in a trench early Friday evening wearing a pair of knee high boots, when he hit a real soft spot in the newly dug section. The sticky mud and clay virtually held him imprisoned. Some of the mud slid into his boots and the resulting suction held him fast. As he sunk deeper into the mud the water in the trench swirled around him chest high.

His cries for help were heard by another boy nearby. The youth summoned help. The fire department arrived in short order and the rescue operation began. One leg was freed of the boot in 15 minutes. The other was stuck fast and the work went on for two hours.

When firemen could not free the boy from the mud and could not remove his leg from the boot, the contractor was summoned and arrived at the scene with a backhoe.

With the heavy piece of equipment poised on the bank of the trench some ten feet above the ditch there was also the danger of several tons of machinery crashing into the ditch. Gently the bucket was lowered to within a few feet of the trapped boy and the firemen. Two scoops of mud were lifted up to ease the pressure and Greg was lifted out.

The firemen delivered him to the gentle hands of his parents and Greg was placed in the squad car for a ride to the hospital with Captain Anthony Rybarski. At the hospital the boy was examined by Dr. M. N. Rosales.

May 12 and 13 the curtain will rise on the Thornton Fractional North spring production, "Adrift in New York", or "Her First Step", a melodrama of the gay nineties, written by Addison Aulger.

The play was written to reveal the New York days of the 1890's with special effects that bring the past to the audience. It is based on a young girl's first endeavor to enter the theatre, to save her father's farm from the clutches of an evil and ruthless villain.

The play is a musical containing such written pieces as "Won't you come Home Bill Bailey" and "Mrs. Murphy's Chowder." A barroom containing townspeople, entertainers, and the town drunks is the scene for the musical arrangements. The set, music, and costumes, are set to give the stage a late 1800's atmosphere.

The cast includes villain Francis Desmond, Ray Blackburn; the old farmer, Silas Weston, Rich Dolat; the all-American hero, Jack Merriwell, acted by Bob Duncan; Nellie, the sweet young thing, Sue Bickham and Karen Smagacz; Martha, her sister, Juli Traybsza and Pam Munda; the strict Aunt Sarah, Sophie Pamphillas and Jeanne Bryne; Burke, David Wallin; Hi Perkins, John Horvath; Dan Fogarty, David Battles; Old Mag, Cathy Kelly and Sophie Pamphillas; Steve Papa portrays Mulligan; Sadie May, an entertainer, Dona Kelly and Jeannete Gibson; Monty Moron, Bruce Becker; Slick McCoy, Albert Lundy; Lillian Morrison, Donna Sidote and Charmain Collie.

Chorus members for the production are Sharon Weilmuenster, Chris Wojewoda, Mary Guest, Carol Kelly, Judy Krause, Ann Cwiklinski, Yvonne Magdziak, and Linda Cznicjewski. The male chorus members include Jeff Neal and Keith Juergens.

Girls in the cast share one part each. The first night the first group of girls will perform while the second group will become part of the chorus line and barmaids. Saturday, the girls will exchange their roles.

The play is directed by Joseph Gyarmathy, who has directed North productions for two years. Musical arrangements are directed by Miss Paula Parker who is assistant director and is now working as a student teacher at North.

Gregory Wojcik is technical director of the play and is usually spending his time building the set and preparing the technical facilities of the stage for the opening night.

Curtain time each night is 7:30 p.m. in the Adeline C. Jaacks Auditorium. Tickets are at 75 cents each.

House Moves To Rid 'Double Dipping'

Another giant step was taken this week by the Executive Committee of the Illinois House in the effort to rid the legislature of the age-old practice of dual job holding or "double-dipping" by members of the legislature.

On a narrow vote along party lines, a measure sponsored by Rep. George Lindberg (R-Crystal Lake) was approved to permit the voters of Illinois to decide next November whether legislators should be permitted to hold a second government job while serving in the legislature.

During the heated committee debate, Lindberg, who is also the Republican Candidate for State Comptroller said, "It has become apparent that the public is increasingly aware of and strongly objects to paying legislators two salaries and contributing to two pension funds."

"More importantly," said Lindberg, "on many occasions such as election reform and home rule issues, these double-dippers march in lock-step with large and small political machines and are totally deprived of the opportunity for independent judgement on behalf of their constituents."

Lindberg noted that, "many times in the course of a legislative session, the will of the people is neglected due to the united efforts of democrats to protect their second public job back home."

When Lindberg, who sponsored Illinois' ethics bill attempted to put the anti-double-dipping provision in the original bill, it was defeated in large part by the democrats who saw it as a threat to themselves and their party.

"Since this double-dipping resolution is a new qualification for office as State Representative or Senator, "Lindberg concluded, "it has definite constitutional significance."

The constitutional amendment resolution will now return to the house floor where it will be debated again. If it receives the vote of three-fifths of the house members, it will be placed on a separate ballot for consideration by the people of Illinois in the November general election.

NOTICE TO READERS AND ADVERTISERS

THE FEDERAL Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits employers with 25 or more employees from discriminating in employment because of sex unless such discrimination is qualification for a particular position. The placement of an advertisement by such an employer or by an employment agency under any of the SUN JOURNALS traditional help wanted headings must not in itself be considered as an expression of a preference, limitation, specification or discrimination based on sex. These headings are a convenience to our readers to let them know which positions would ordinarily be of more interest to one sex than the other because of the work involved. Employers covered by the Civil Rights Act will interview and consider any qualified applicant of either sex for a position offered unless there exists a bona fide occupational qualification for that position.
